

SODA

STRING ORCHESTRA of DECATUR and ATLANTA

The String Orchestra of Decatur and Atlanta is a string orchestra open to late elementary through middle school musicians. It is a group focused on providing an orchestral setting with fun and challenging music. Its goal is to be a stepping stone into SODA Chamber or other advanced groups in late middle or high school.

SODA Chamber is a group for more advanced players. Its purpose is to enhance orchestral skills through more challenging music and leadership roles. Audition is required for this group and is composed of musicians in middle and early high school.
